

The Desert Will Blossom

Isaiah 35

1. How does the promise that God will restore all that was lost at Jesus's second coming give you courage in the present?
2. What aspect of life in this fallen world (i.e., your desert places) are you feeling right now? How do you desire Jesus to bring streams in desert?
3. How would beholding Jesus by faith help you to enter into the everlasting joy that is already yours?
